

About University

The Grodno State Medical Institute was established in 1958, the first enrollment of freshmen amounted to 250. Over the last 50 years, the Institute (and then the university) graduated over 16,000 physicians and graduate nurses. The Ministry of Health of the Republic of Belarus increased considerably enrollment in the University over recent years. The University has 5 faculties. The University offers five undergraduate majors, 33 majors for clinical residents, 20 majors for Ph.D. students. First master's degree holders have been qualified. It is worthy of note that the University trains not only physicians but also researchers and the teaching staff for its own needs. At present the administration of the University consists mainly of the University graduates. By the number of persons with doctoral and Ph.D. degrees the Grodno State Medical University takes the leading position in the Republic of Belarus.

Prepare for Medical PG in Germany while pursuing MBBS in Belarus

BENEFITS OF RESIDENCY IN GERMANY

Germany is the strongest economy of Europe and is able to allocate huge funds to the healthcare sector for their non growing population. The quality of life is one of the best among European countries. They have allocated 10% reserved PG seats for international medical graduates. Germany recognizes MCI approved degrees and licenses making it easier for the Indian doctors to have a transition from India to Germany.

Further, learning German language is far more easier for Indians who studied in English since the alphabets are same. MOKSH conducts on-line A1, A2 and B1 level German language coaching classes so that you can be ready for German program.
