Prepare for Medical PG in UK while pursuing MBBS in Georgia

BENEFITS OF RESIDENCY IN UK

The process of applying for specialty training (residency) in the UK is known as specialty recruitment or national recruitment and can be thought of as similar to "the match" in the US. If you want to work as a doctor in the UK, then you'll need to be registered with the General Medical Council (GMC). PLAB exam has 2 components: PLAB 1 which is a written test, and PLAB 2 which is a practical test. Fortunately with the right preparation, PLAB is a very manageable exam and there are good pass rates which are increasing year on year. In 2024, PLAB will be replaced by the UKMLA which will be required for both UK graduates and non-EU graduates. The best first job for most international doctors starting out in the UK, is as an employed non-training junior grade doctor in an NHS hospital. MOKSH Offers Online Coaching for PLAB 1 exam. The MOKSH Qbank is intensive and with most clinically oriented questions helping student develop their diagnostic skills.

Prepare for Medical PG in Germany while pursuing MBBS in Georgia

BENEFITS OF RESIDENCY IN GERMANY

Germany is the strongest economy of Europe and is able to allocate huge funds to the healthcare sector for their non growing population. The quality of life is one of the best among European countries. They have allocated 10% reserved PG seats for international medical graduates. Germany recognizes MCI approved degrees and licenses making it easier for the Indian doctors to have a transition from India to Germany. Further, learning German is far more easier for Indians who studied in English since the alphabets are same. MOKSH conducts on-line A1, A2 and B1 level German language coaching classes so that you can be ready for German program.
